Action Taken Report on Feedback on the syllabus and its transaction at the institution from the stakeholders

The feedback on curriculum of all courses was taken by setting a questionnaire containing different questions from the stakeholders. The feedback was analysed by each department. This feedback is then shared with the respective members of Boards of Study for their consideration. Being an affiliated college to the University of Mumbai, the college has no role in framing the curricula.

Based on the responses of the feedback taken during interaction with Alumni institution started M.Com. in the subject of Banking and Finance and also the proposal for M.Sc. in the subject of Information Technology was submitted to University of Mumbai.

Feedback was also taken during interaction with learners by the teachers. The certificate courses such as How to Crack Competitive Examinations?, Tally Prime with GST and Banking Exam Preparation were conducted to enhance the skills of the learners and fulfill their carrier goals.
