Brief Report on Webinar on "Financial Literacy for unskilled workers and illiterate people"

Department of Accountancy under the banner of "Being Me" had arranged a Webinar on "Financial Literacy for unskilled workers and illiterate people" for students on Saturday, 09th October 2021.

Resource person was Dr. Thakur Akash Ashok Singh an imminent and highly qualified personality in the finance field and an excellent orator. The expert was given a warm welcome and introduction and later thanked by Prof. Ashvina Paul Raj for sharing his expert knowledge with students. This webinar was in the form of an interactive session in which many students asked various question and all these questions were satisfactorily answered by the expert thereby enlightening the knowledge of the students in this regard. 72 students benefitted from this program and 10 teachers graced the program with their presence.

Department of Accountancy under the able guidance of HOD CA Kishor Wankhede took efforts to make this program successful and well organized.
